

August 11, 2011

CROSSROADS

where faith & life meet

focus

Hello Crossroads,

- The basketball goals have been installed and the gym floor goes down next week, and the UMAC will be finished. So hopefully everything will be ready for the Grand Opening and Ribbon Cutting ceremony on Sept. 7. We are working out the details of the time in which this will take place; I will share that time with you in my next email.
- There are still plenty of openings available for volunteers to sign up to work a 3 hr. shift as a host. Our hope is to have the facility open twelve hours a day Monday thru Friday. Obviously for those who work it will be impossible to volunteer during the day; however, the 5-8 p.m. time slot might be a great time to volunteer. The sign-up book can be found at either the hospitality desk outside of the Contemporary Worship Center or at the hospitality desk in the Narthex.
- We have had a couple of people make contributions to the landscaping of the new facility. If you would like to donate funds in honor or memory of someone please let me know.
- As I shared with you last week, we will be starting a Grief Support Group on Tuesday, Sept. 6 at 10:00 a.m. If you would like to be a part of this group contact Mary Ann Remington at 425-9110.
- If you are interested in starting a small group please let me or Rev. Steele know. Small groups are a great way to strengthen our discipleship. Members of a small group can keep each other motivated and hold each other accountable thru their faith journey. Please feel free to talk to us about ideas in ways of beginning a small group.

with Rev. Randy Ludwig

rludwig@fumcmh.org

Mealtime Conversation

This Sunday I'm excited that we all will get to share in the baptism of Mackenzie Dunavan. The message will be centered on baptism, and particularly on Jesus' baptism. Join us for worship this Sunday at 9:00 a.m. as we explore the words of Luke, "...and Jesus also."

